The Sprint Method

Why 60 days, why sprints

Job searching without a system is soul-crushing: random applications, no feedback loop, motivation dying by week 3. The Sprint Method treats your search like a project: 8 weekly sprints, each with a theme, daily missions, and measurable output. You will know exactly what to do every morning for 60 days.

The 8 sprints:

- Weeks 1-2: Foundation — resume, LinkedIn, target list, materials ready.
- Weeks 3-4: Volume — applications engine running, 10+ quality applications/week.
- Weeks 5-6: Network Blitz — referrals become your #1 channel.
- Weeks 7-8: Interview Sprint — convert interviews to offers, negotiate.

Daily time budget: 3 focused hours beat 8 distracted ones. Block 9am-12pm (or your peak hours) as sacred search time. Phone on Do Not Disturb.

WHY IT WORKS: Track everything in this book's trackers. What gets measured gets improved — and the data will show you exactly which channel produces interviews.
